The survey and report

Digitalisation of the curriculum

Mobile phones in school

In most countries surveyed: pupils may sometimes use them if the teacher allows in others, not at all: Greece, Malta, Norway (primary only), Spain
In no country may pupils use their mobile phone whenever they want
Outside lessons during the school day: it's a school level decision

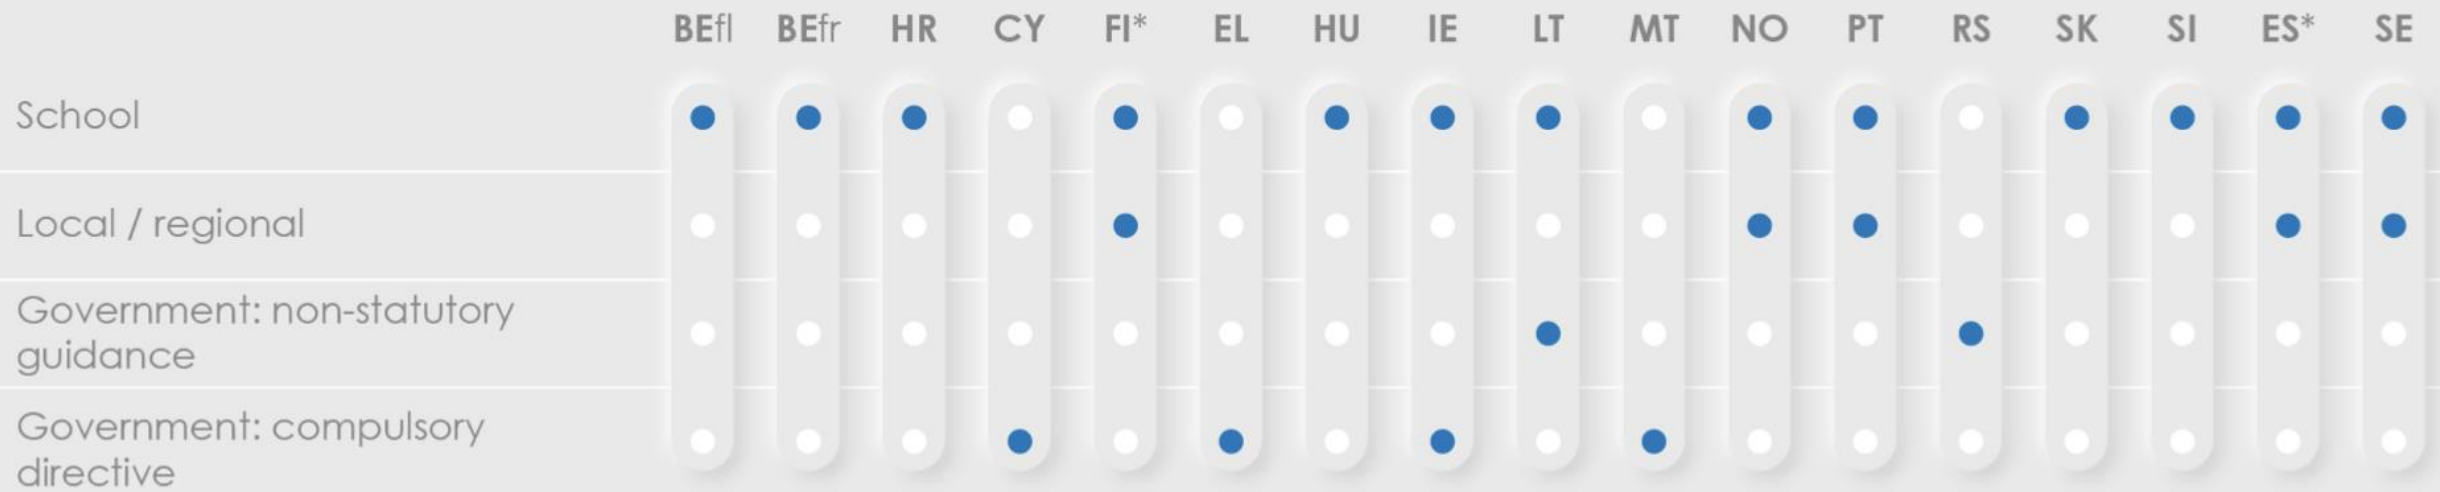

Figure 6: Are pupils allowed to use their own smartphone, tablet or laptop in lessons? (n=17)

Who decides?

Figure 8: Level at which smartphone use in school is set (n=17). *: see comment by respondent.

School level actions

Actions by schools

Norway: Daytime storage for phones and smart watches in phone hotels

Belgium (FL): Guidelines based on national / regional guidelines

Finland, Slovenia: Rules of conduct

Malta: Quantify screen time in schools

Reaction of parents and pupils

BE(FI), Norway, Slovenia: “Welcome clear guidelines and measures taken”

Finland: “Are the rules too strict?”

Greece: Positive, but young people disagreed

Hungary, Malta: Mixed, for and against
